Dear [REDACTED]

Congratulations! The admissions selection committee in the College of Arts and Sciences has approved your application for admission to Cornell University for the fall of 2021. I am honored to share this wonderful news with you and to welcome you to the Cornell community.

As you celebrate your admission to Cornell, I want you to also reflect upon and consider the words and wisdom of founder Ezra Cornell: "I would found an institution where any person can find instruction in any study." Cornell University gathers people from around the world committed to personal discovery and growth. Our current students, faculty, staff, and generations of alumni aim to nurture your scholarship and creativity, and to engage and enrich your human spirit alongside future friends in your Class. I look forward to having you join the tradition of excellence, intellectual ingenuity, diversity and equity that has always made Cornell University distinctive.

We will reserve your space when we receive your enrollment deposit. Our offer of admission requires your sustained success in completing any school work now in progress and continuing to uphold the highest standards of character in all of your activities. Please also note that, upon your enrollment, you are committing to join everyone here in adhering to Cornell University's Code of Academic Integrity.

Congratulations again on your admission to Cornell University. I am in awe of your resilience and success during this very challenging year, and I look forward to working with you to ensure that your Cornell experience will bring you all of the benefits and opportunities you seek.

With best regards,

Jonathan Burdick
